DR. TALMAGE'S ELOQUENT REVIEW plague of skepticism. OF AGNOSTICISM.

The Most Remarkable of a Very Remarkable Series of Sermons on "The Plagues of the Cities"-Does the Bible Justify Polygamy?

NEW YORK, April 5. - Continuing his course of sermons on "The Ten Plagues of the Cities," Rev. Dr. Talmage today took for his subject "The Plague of Infidelity." The discourse was delivered to large and appreciative audiences at the Brooklyn Academy of Music in the forenoon and the New York Academy of Music in the evening. The text was Romans iii, 4, "Let God be true, but every man a liar."

How a Reptile Traps Fishes. There is a species of terrapin at the London Zoological gardens which is in the fortunate position of not having to work for a living. Like the children in the fairy tale, it has simply to open its mouth and food will drop in. In the mouth of this reptile is a little tag of flesh which is in continual vibration and nearly always visible, for the creature remains open mouthed for hours together. It is believed that the sight of this is particularly alluring to the piscine mind. The fish commits the very pardonable though fatal error of lowed by a rubbing with a dry flannel cloth. mistaking the process for a wriggling worm. Just as the city looks to the country for most of the luxuries used on its tables, so the country must turn to the city for those conveniences which are justly termed luxuries for the hard-working housewife. City housekeepers have learned to realize that to save time is to lengthen life.

is one of the best known city luxuries and each time a cake is used an hour is saved. On floors, tables and painted work it acts like a charm. For scouring pots, pans and metals it has no equal. IF YOUR STOREKEEPER DOES NOT KEEP IT YOU SHOULD INSIST UPON HIS DOING SO, as it always gives satisfaction and its immense sale all over the United States makes it an almost necessary article to any well-supplied store. Everything shines after its use, and even the children delight in using it in their attempts to help around the house.

"Oh," you say, "what will become of the ships on that night? What will be the fate of the one million sailors following the sea? What will be the doom of the millions of passenhey should have walked under this gers? Who will arise to put down such a conspiracy?" Every man, woman and child in America and the world. But that is only a fable. That is what infidelity is trying to do, put out all the lighthouses on the coast of eternity, letting the soul go up the "Narrows" of death with no light, no comfort, no the better, O voyager for eternity-the firefly or the lighthouse? What a mission infidelity has started on! The extinguishment of lighthouses, the breaking up of lifeboats, the disit from under the foundation of church missal of all the pilots, the turning of the inscription on your child's grave into a farce and a lie. Walter Scott's Old Mortality, chisel in hand, went through the land to cut into plainer letters the half obliterated inscriptions on the tembstones, and it was a beautiful mission. But infidelity spends its time with hammer and chisel trying to cut out from the tombstones of your dead all the story of resurrection and heaven. It is the iconoclast of every village graveyard, and of every city man's liberty, and woman's honor, and dying, a freezing saeer. Instead of
